Dear Mr. Perry,

Just a note to inform you that your presentation was outstanding! Our students and staff deeply appreciate the time you spent as our keynote speaker. Everyone is still talking about how inspired they were by the presentation.

Thank you so much for sharing your words of wisdom and for motivating us to always achieve our personal best. Our event was a major success because of you. I wish you well and hope you will continue to encourage others with your message of hope.

Sincerely,
